

WHAT'S New

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL DISABILITIES AND TENURE

Wednesday, June 11, 2014

City Council Appoints Dr. David P. Milzman To Judicial Tenure Commission

This is to notify the bench, bar, and general public that on June 3, 2014, the City Council confirmed the appointment of Dr. David P. Milzman as a member of the Commission on Judicial Disabilities and Tenure for a term to expire May 5, 2017.

Dr. Milzman currently serves in multiple roles at the Georgetown University School of Medicine where he specializes in emergency medicine. He is an Assistant Dean for Student Research, Professor of Emergency Medicine, Research Director in the Department of Emergency Medicine at the Washington Hospital Center of Georgetown University Hospital, Associate Professor of Clinical Emergency Medicine, and Medical Student Senior Advisor and Emergency Medicine Elective Director. Dr. Milzman is also an Adjunct Professor of Biology at Georgetown University. In addition, he is an Attending Emergency Physician at the Indian Health Service in Gallup, New Mexico, at the Children's Hospital National Medical Center, and at Washington Hospital Center. Prior to these positions, Dr. Milzman served in various teaching, research, and practice roles with several schools and hospitals in the metropolitan area.

Dr. Milzman received his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Maryland, obtained his Doctor of Medicine from Georgetown University, and completed his residency training in Emergency and Internal Medicine at Eastern Virginia Graduate School of Medicine.

As a physician, Dr. Milzman will be a great asset to the Commission particularly with regard to health issues concerning judges of the District of Columbia Courts. Dr. Milzman replaces Dr. Michael Williams, who resigned from the Commission in 2012, due to his acceptance of a position at the University of Virginia School of Medicine in Charlottesville, VA. Dr. Milzman is one of two non-lawyer members of the Commission.